To Whom It May Concern:

RE: Tom Meyer

I have known Tom for nearly three years, and have found that his knowledge of God's Word has been outstanding. As a pastor of a small country church, he has attended our church and been a part of our worship service.

Tom excels in the memorization of Scriptures, often reciting entire books of the Bible in the King James version. He speaks with such authority and expression, that he is able to command the full attention of our congregation and even small children. He has served as a Sunday School teacher of both adults and children, as well as giving sermons from the pulpit. Even though he is still a student, I feel quite comfortable leaving him to teach and preach in our church. He exhibits Godly wisdom in conveying his subject matter, and is able to respond to questions spontaneously because he knows his topic so well.

Tom is a very unusual college student. Most young people go to school and participate in the school activities only. However, Tom has a desire to be a part of the community and evangelize at every moment and location possible. His passion to spread the Gospel message is unsurpassed.

If I can be of any further assistance, do not hesitate to call me.

Sincerely,

Mike Steiner
