To whom it may concern.

Over the past few days, Tom Meyer has been speaking in our services. His love for the word and his diligence in hiding it in his heart shows forth as he recites from memory many passages of scripture. Our congregation has been not only blessed and lifted up because of his unique ministry but we have also been challenged and encouraged to better equip ourselves for the work of the ministry by memorizing scripture as he has. I have also had the privilege of having Tom in our home. Getting to know Tom has been a joy for my family. He was very respectful, considerate, kind, gracious and not in any way a burden. Tom's passion for God's word was demonstrated in our home; each evening we gave him a private audience where I gladly shared God's word with us from memory and through explanation of those passages.

We have been blessed with Tom and his ministry and we at Grace Baptist Church look forward to his next visit recommending his ministry to any church that loves God's word passionately.

In a world where people have become bored with God's word, Tom is a spiritual breath of fresh air.
