To Whom It May Concern:

On Sunday, August 12, Tom Meyer shared his Wordsower Ministry with the Kaneville United Methodist Church in Kaneville, IL. During our morning Sunday school hour, Tom dramatically interpreted God's Word from memory -- selecting the book of Hebrews -- he recited all of chapter eleven, paralleling it with references from the Old Testament. In the afternoon, Tom also interpreted the entire book of Jonah from memory at my clergy cluster worship-picnic.

On behalf of the Kaneville church family, it was a privilege having Tom with us. I would recommend him to other churches and groups. They will be blessed!

Sincerely,

Pastor Jason Turner
