

"The Lord is my strength and my shield." Psalm 28:7

August 12, 2006

To Whom It May Concern:

Tom Meyer was the special speaker at our school the first week of June 2006, for our Missions Emphasis Week. The purpose of ending our school year this way is to send our students out for their summer vacation with a burden to share Christ in their neighborhood. Tom was chosen as our speaker because of his passion for memorizing and reciting scripture. What better way to share Christ than reciting his Word?

Tom came and spent the week with us, June 5th-9th, 2006. He was punctual each day being at school by 7:45 a.m. He built relationships with the kids by playing games with them on the playground before school started. He presented his dramatic scripture recitation, in costume, each day while moving through the group of students and actually using the students to help dramatize the portion of scripture that he was reciting, making it very personal. He recited each passage with energy and passion making it come alive and real for each listening student. He made scripture memory exciting and challenging.

He had an outline for the week consisting of who, when, why, where and how to memorize scripture, as well as memorizing tips and learning aids, which he reviewed and built upon each day with the students.

He finished out the week with the challenge to use the tips and learning aids to memorize Proverbs 3:1-10 over the summer and share it with family and friends.

Tom came to our school as a complete stranger and left our school as one of our good friends. He was polite, respectful and courteous and a pleasure to have on our campus.

All to the glory of God,
