To whom it may concern:

RE: Tom Meyer, M. A.,

In the fall and spring of 2007-08 Tom Meyer attended two of my classes; The Archeology of Jerusalem and Archeology of the Holy Land from the Persian to the Byzantine Periods at Jerusalem University College. Tom passed these classes with a strong grade and audited these two classes again in order to deepen his understanding of the subject. During Tom's four years at JUC he has also taken part in the various field trips linked to archeology in the Holy Land as well as volunteering numerous times at the Temple Mount Sifting project. Tom would certainly make a positive contribution as a teacher of the archeology of the Holy Land.
