

November 6, 2010

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing on behalf of Tom Meyer of Wordsower Ministries. We recently had him speak to both our middle school students, grades 6-8, and our upper school students, grades 9-12, in a chapel service at Santa Fe Christian Schools.

He delivered by memory the first eleven chapters of Genesis and captured the attention of our students and faculty members in an amazing way. Some of the comments people walked out saying were:

"I never have or take the time to listen to or read that many chapters of Scripture in a row... what a treat!"

"It was so cool to hear the Word of God. I really think I'm an auditory learner. I got so much out of it."

"If he can do that, I can certainly memorize the chapter in Ephesians that I'm supposed to do for Bible class."

"I was refreshing to just hear the Word of God, instead of someone trying to make up stories to entertain us and connect them to the Bible."

I believe our students were encouraged, amazed, and challenged to hide God's Word in their hearts. It was a chapel they will never forget. I hope we can have Tom back again to do Revelation! I highly recommend him for your gathering too.

Sincerely,

Amy Kennard
SFCS Chapel Coordinator