

Dear Prof. Meyer:

I wanted you to know that every single person who came to hear you quote the book of Revelation from memory was blessed by your performance. We received at least a dozen requests for your return. I want to thank you for a totally enjoyable evening. My church and the others that attended will never forget what you did. Your family was delightful. Again, thank you for your effort. God be with you.

Pastor Dom Petrucelli
Brookings, OR